18. TIMELINESS OF PETITION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.

Due to the fact that it took until January of 2008 to obtain all the documents now before the Court the Movant falls within the deadline set forth in section 1 paragraph D.

"The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (AEDPA) as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) provides in part that:

(1) A one-year period limitations shall apply to an application for writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitations period shall run from the latest of:

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such state action;

(C) the date on which the constitution right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of true diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitations under this subsection.

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant the following relief: To reinstate Movant's probation to its original starting point with Interstate Compact completed allowing Movant to return to residency in South Carolina, or any other relief to which petitioner is entitled.
